

BYU Utah Education Law and Policy Institute Presents

2018 Legislative Session Wrap Up: Education
Policy Decisions
And Implications for the Future

Policy Makers/Legislators Panel:

Rep. Kim Coleman
Rich Kendall
Martell Menlove
Ronda Menlove
Rep. Carol Spackman Moss
Rep. Norman Thurston

April 13, 2018

BYU Harman Building Ballroom
12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m. Including
Questions and Answers

2:00 pm to 3:30 pm Workshop Session for Educators in Dual Immersion Settings (Session held in the attached 2295 BYU Conference Center)

A free luncheon and panel presentation followed by a question and answer session.
Please RSVP by April 6, 2018 by phone (801) 422-4291, or e-mail edlfsec@byu.edu

Panel Members include present and past members of the Utah State Legislature with varying experience levels and views and committee appointments regarding education, at the K-12 and the K-20 levels and also include the proponent of a referendum to greatly enhance educational funding in the state, a past State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and a Vice Provost for Utah State University. Topics that might be discussed could include the referendum and legislative efforts on educational funding, school safety, school choice issues, the structure of educational governance in the State, including the proposal to do away with the State Board of Education and others.

The Institute is sponsored by the BYU Dept. of Educational Leadership and Foundations, the BYU Journal of Education and Law, the BYU Schools of Education and Law, and is funded by the Del Wasden Foundation through the McKay School of Education. For more information phone Scott Ferrin at (801) 422-4804 or e-mail: ferrin@byu.edu. To RSVP by April 6, 2018 call 801 422-4291 or e-mail edlfsec@byu.edu. Attendance allocated on a first come first served basis by RSVP.