

Equity-Based Support for Multilingual Students & Families

a webinar series for school leaders

Join Sarah Ottow and Wendy Amato at a free webinar series for school leaders.

Discover how school leaders, district leaders, instructional coaches and teacher leaders can effectively refine their equity-based mindset and corresponding set of practices when supporting educators in their local communities.

Confianza Founder Sarah Ottow and her team will share practical ways they support instructional leaders to develop their vision for equity and how they support teachers to enact equity-based practices in their multilingual classrooms.
