

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORY EDUCATION
CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 2021

Conference Workshop Unladylike2020 Presents: The Stories of Women History Makers 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM Eastern
Connection Session Teaching Inquiry and Writing During the Pandemic: What We Have Learned 2:00 – 2:50 PM Eastern
Virtual Field Trips 3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern
The Historiscope: What a Nineteenth Century Toy Can Teach Us About Place...	Teaching About the Japanese American Incarceration and Redress Movement	Chosen Places	Using Place as a Primary Source
It's Elementary, My Dear: Teaching with Primary Sources in the Elementary Classroom...	100+ Years of Women's History and Other News Stories That Shaped America	Bring a "Mathematics Lens" to Your Historical Primary Source Analysis!	The OER Project: Usable History for Today's World
Exhibitor Sessions 5:45 – 6:45 PM Eastern
Keynote Session Philip Deloria, Harvard University 7:00 – 8:00 PM Eastern Evening Event History Matters (...and so do Cocktails) with Joanne Freeman 8:30 - 9:30 PM Eastern

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 2021

Conference Workshop Space, Place, & the Pursuit of Mappiness: Using WebGIS to Enhance the History Classroom 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM Eastern Connection Session Remembering the Past, Changing the Future: Lessons from the Tulsa Race Massacre 2:00 – 2:50 PM Eastern
Virtual Field Trips 3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern
Lessons Learned from WWII Mass Imprisonment and Application to Today's...	Racial Slavery in the Americas: Resistance, Freedom, and Legacies	Accounts of the Mongol Empire Across Place and Time	Disrupting Their Thinking: An Inquiry into the Impact of Redlining on Politics...
Designing Critical Inquiries to teach Ancient Civilizations in the Elementary Classroom	Civic Education and Action through Library of Congress Primary Source Analysis	The Continuing Significance of the Long Struggle for Civil Rights	Can Historical Thinking Be Assessed on a Statewide Summative...
Keynote Session Laurel Thatcher Ulrich, Harvard University 7:00 – 8:00 PM Eastern
Evening Event History Trivia and Networking "Power Hour" from the Creators of HistoryPlunge 8:30 - 9:30 PM Eastern

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORY EDUCATION
CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 2021

Connection Session Preparing Young People to Govern our Constitutional Democracy: A Historian's Perspective 9:30 – 10:30 AM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 10:45 – 11:45 AM Eastern
George Washington: Turning Points	One Renaissance or Many?	The Commerce Clause in American Legal History	Buffalo Soldiers - Military Presence in the West During Post Slavery America
Song of Myself: Exploring the Language of Protest with OER	Culturally Relevant Pedagogy and Primary Sources	Evaluating Primary Sources: Is Seeing Believing?
Exhibitor Sessions 12:00 – 1:00 PM Eastern
Keynote Session Anne Kelly Knowles, University of Maine 1:00 – 2:00 PM Eastern
Breakout Sessions 2:30 – 3:30 PM Eastern
Mapping History with the National Archives and DocsTeach	Exploring U.S. Environmental History – Hands-On Activities and Digital Tools	World War I Explains the Middle East: Engaging Lesson Plans...	Virtual Reality? Oliver Wendell Holmes, the Civil War, and Stereographs
Women and Activism, 1948-1977	Explore, Engage, Create: Using Primary Sources with Students and Teachers in Alaska	Fostering Visual Inquiry and Geohistorical Thinking in Students...
Breakout Sessions 4:00 – 5:00 PM Eastern
A Wholesome Verdict: Using Historical Empathy Strategies to Analyze Elizabeth Jennings...	Escape from the Ordinary with Digital Escape Rooms	Teaching with the Latino Americans Documentary Series	Mapping Skills in the Online Learning Environment for Middle Grades Educators
Unemployment Insurance: A Tried and True Safety Net	Introducing History's Mysteries: Historical Inquiry in Elementary Classrooms	Supporting Culture Change: Developing and Assessing Primary Source-Based...
Keynote Session Annette Gordon-Reed, Harvard University 6:00 – 7:00 PM Eastern Evening Event Cooking Historically: Influential Chefs 7:30 - 8:30 PM Eastern

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORY EDUCATION
CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

SUNDAY, APRIL 11, 2021

Breakout Sessions 10:45 – 11:45 AM Eastern
Recipes: Primary Source Smorgasbords	REACH for the Sky: Free IDM Resources on the Social History of the Skyscraper	Boston 1737: A Local News Network Case Study	Jim Crow America and the Black Travelers' Experience
Great Empires Through a Document-Based Approach	Teaching Complex Histories with Visual and Textual Primary Sources	Teaching the Diversity of Native American Cultures with Primary Sources...
Breakout Sessions 1:30 – 2:30 PM Eastern
Using Primary Sources and Inquiry Learning to Engage Students	The Historiographic Perspective: The Battlefield of Waterloo Reinterpreted...	Long Primary Sources for Understanding the Long Civil Rights Movement	Opportunities & Obstacles: Women of the American West
Existence as Resistance: An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States for Young...	Ten Strategies for Driving Inquiry in the Social Studies Classroom	TPS Teachers Network: Peer-to-Peer Support Across Place and Time
Breakout Sessions 3:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern
The Demise of Print Media and the Right to be Forgotten: Teaching Digital Literacy...	Teaching the Arab-Israeli Conflict with Primary Sources	Exploring History Through Maps	Digging in the Backyard - Immersion in Intensive Study of Local History Taps...
Is Voting a Privilege That Can Be Taken Away?	Using Digital Primary Sources to Teach Data Literacy	Using Visual Literacy and Writing-Based Teaching Strategies to Explore...
Keynote Session Andrés Reséndez, University of California, Davis 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern			