Ganwar was angry because he felt like he didn't fit in. But then he worked on the farm and felt a little more at home. He helped rescue Gol and realized people make their own luck. Then he was happier.

TRY THIS!

MICRO-PROGRESSIONS

To help students practice following a model and improve their writing, use micro-progressions: a way of breaking down a skill into small steps. Choose a skill you want them to practice (adding details, supporting with evidence, etc.) and then break it up into three levels. Create examples for each level and let students decide what makes each level better than the last before doing their own writing (following the best example). To see how to create a micro-progression, watch this video.

HIGHLIGHTS CLASSROOM PREP FOR ACCESS

With ACCESS testing coming up, remember to do the following in your classroom:

- cover up or take down signs, word walls, etc.
- create a "Do Not Disturb" sign to hang outside your room
- make sure you have plenty of headphones for all of your students
- decide on a quiet activity that students can do if they finish before others

CURRICULUM CORNER RE-LINK VISTA AND COURSES

With a new semester starting, you'll need to re-link your Vista courses to Clever courses. You can create new Vista courses (click here for a reminder of how to do that) or just unlink the semester 1 courses and link your semester 2 courses (click here for instructions). Once you link new courses, you will lose old grades, so make sure you have everything backed up first!

Select which class should be linked to this VHL section to begin the automatic enrollment process for your students. This process may take up to 24 hours to complete. Future updates from your district may also take up to 24 hours to synchronize with the linked VHL section.
